A Big Thank You to all the parishioners who provided 'cookies' for the prisoners at Stocken. We managed to produce about 1000, which were delivered to Casterton Church Hall where they were added to the many thousands provided by the many churches in the area. On Monday, they were delivered to the prison to be distributed, prior to the Kairos team going in the following week. Please pray for the success of this project.
<ul> <li>English Martyrs School News</li> <li>During Mission Week, the youth team from the Briars joined us to work with the children on discipleship. The KS2 children built boats from cardboard whilst the KS1 children painted pictures of disciples and, by the end of the day, each class adopted a disciple to inspire them through the Gospel Values. The Little Lights and Mini Chaplains then helped the Briars team in leading a lovely liturgy at the end of the day.</li> <li>Rutland in Concert – Year 6 went to Oakham School Chapel on Monday to join in with the massed Primary School Rehearsal for the "Rutland In Concert" Pied Piper performance which is next Tuesday. The sound of 370 children singing the songs was fantastic. Tickets are still available from the De Montfort Hall box office - prices are £10 for adults and it promises to be an unforgettable experience.</li> </ul>
